PRESIDENT LETTER

First I would like to welcome all the new members. I want to thank all the bees for doing a great job on the program. The bees are a lot of fun and a good way to get know other people. If anyone would like to join one or start up one contact Edyth Brown.

Jo-Ellen it was good to hear you have all the vendors set up for the quilt show again. You have done a great job, I don't think we would have such a great show without you, Beverly and our great volunteers to make it wonderful. Now, I hope all are members are working on their beautiful quilts. Some small, big, crazy, traditional and unusual quilts. With all the work everyone is doing the show will be beautiful like always.

And I hope everyone is working on something for the silent auction and boutique and to all the bees, I hope you're working on beautiful baskets for the drawings..

Thank you so much, Janet Bell, for taking on the community service for the guild. I know you will do a great job and if you need any help just ask and you will have it.

😊😊 BE HAPPY

Carol Penrod.

Quilt Show Plans

As plans move forward, there are more things to relate. The Opportunity Quilt photo cards have been reprinted with our correct dates. Please pick some up at the meetings and start to circulate them.

Our chairmen for Turn In is Carol Schulz and Take Down is Joan Oldham. They will tag team and help each other. They are looking for teams to handle taking down the quilts at show's end. Let them know if you can help.

Marsha and Sue are looking for unique Silent Auction items – surprise them with something. If you or a group you're involved with are planning to make a basket of goodies to sell, let the Silent Auction ladies know.

Nadine Vining has agreed to handle the challenge of our program booklets. We need to sell ads to place in the program. These ads will help pay for the program. So please think of business that you might approach for an ad. The ad introduction letter is available from Nadine or Beverly. We have extra programs from our last show. Use the program to help you sell ads.

We will have the volunteer signup sheets available at the October meeting. It takes many worker bees to make the show run smoothly.

Lastly, we have a full line up of vendors – a nice variety. Here they are: Martelli from Pensacola, Dragon Fly Quilt Shop from Highpoint, NC., Quilts, Memories, Past Times from Blountstown, FL., Quilt Tricks from Cary, NC., Coastal Stitches from Destin, FL., Oh! Sew Pretty from Opp, AL, Euro Iron (Redfern Ent) from Las Vegas, NV, Hancy Creations from Montague, CA., Jim's Sewing from Panama City, FL., and Calico Patch Designs from Morehead, KY.

Keep on Sewing!

Next, mark and cut the Color 3 7" x 14" strip into eight 3-1/2" squares...
