PRESIDENT LETTER

I hope you had a good yard sale in August. Sorry, I could not be there. I want to thank Sheila for taking over the meeting for me.

Sheila and I will be working on getting some more classes set up for the fall. I would like to get the beginners quilting class started soon and would like to know how many of you would be interested in taking it. Please let me know by the next meeting.

Thank you all for your support,

Carol Penrod
President

SABQG August 21st, Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order by Sheila Herb, Vice President, in the absence of President, Carol Penrod. The Pledge of Allegiance was given by all. There were 58 members present. Hospitality - Hospitality Chairman, Alana Yuratich, thanked the Gad Abouts and friends for refreshments. She announced that the Sit-n-Stitch in September will be held at Lori Day's home. This will be on September 4, 2019. Alana announced that September's theme will be flowers and urged members to wear flowers on the next general meeting day.

Birthdays-Georgia Gunn saluted all September birthdays with their birthday cupcake. Library - -The Librarian announced that she has some extra books from the library that are for sale at the Guild Yard Sale. Bees - Beekeeper, Edyth Brown, reminded all Bees that they have the program for the September meeting. Each Bee is to make a short presentation describing the activities of their Bee. Community Service - Community Service is still looking for a chairman. In the absence of a chairman, Betty Marler and the Busy Bees will have a surprise project for members on the next workday on the last Wednesday of the month. Three members took incomplete quilt blocks to complete into quilt tops. Congratulations to members who collectively made 250 pillowcases.

Events The events committee will have meeting in September. The Thanksgiving luncheon is scheduled for November 20th. Meat will be provided and members are asked to bring side dishes. Theme for the luncheon is "I'm grateful for!" and we're encouraged to use this theme to decorate a hat. The December Christmas celebration is December 7th. The cost of the party is $5.00. The party starts at 11:00 at Grace Presbyterian. Congratulations to members who collectively made 250 pillow cases. Quilt Show - Quilt Show announcements encouraged members to keep making their quilts. Our goal is 100 quilts. Tickets for the Opportunity Quilt are available from Carolyn Pic. Jo-Ellen Rogers informed the group of the difficulty in obtaining vendors and asked the membership for suggestions.

Retreat - The Fall Retreat is scheduled for November 1-3 at the Laguna Beach Center. The theme is patriotic. Jane Dunn promises lots of fun for attendees. Special Project - Jo-Ellen Rogers discussed to current Thangles project. She demonstrated how to use to thangles form. Members are encouraged to

Quilt Show

After a pause following Hurricane Michal, we are moving forward with our plans for Quilt Show 2020. The date is February 14 and 15, 2020, with setup on Thursday, February 13, 2020. We will put aside thoughts of problems and make positive steps to produce a beautiful show. Sharing our quilts with others brings smiles to many faces. (including our own!)

So we are compiling a list of ways you can help.

1. Make a quilt following our guidelines. Once your quilt is made, submit your registration form to Beverly.
2. Sell tickets on our Opportunity quilt and give money to Caroline Pic. If you want more tickets call Carolyn .
3. Make items to sell in our Boutique. See Linda Aspinwall if you need ideas. Come to work on Boutique workshop days. Linda will organize.
4. Contribute items for the Silent Auction. Can be small quilts or other quilt related items, something "eye catching." See Marsha or Sue G.
5. Postcards advertising the show are available. Help place these cards around the community.
6. Volunteer to solicit companies to place an ad in our show booklet. Information on this project will be presented in September.
7. Volunteer workers for the show are always needed. Signup sheets begin in September. Here some of the ways we can use you. We need at least four people to help on Turn In day and we need at least six teams to "Take Down" at the shows end. We need six people on judging day (you have to move quilts, hold up quilts and keep quilts organized.) We need teams of women who can climb a ladder to hang quilts on Hanging Day.
8. Volunteer workers during the show hours - work in admission, opportunity quilt, silent auction, boutique and show "angels" to watch over the quilts. Betty Marler will have sign up boards ready. Every member is needed in some capacity.
9. During the show we maintain a hospitality room with food to keep us going. Alana has volunteered to head up this project. She will be looking for donations of food. Let her know what you can do.

THERE IS A PLACE FOR EVERY MEMBER. UNLIKE THE MARINES WHO LOOK FOR A FEW GOOD MEN, WE ARE LOOKING FOR MANY GOOD VOLUNTEERS.

P.S. The quilt contest category named "Theme" is called "A Salute to Our Military". Quilts in this category do not have to depict a particular branch of the military, but should be patriotic in theme and honor the United States. You can put an eagle on your quilt, or flags or stars and stripes! Whatever reflects our feelings for the "red, white and blue."

Thank you Beverly Pierzchala and Jo-Ellen Rogers

Thangle Swap Reminder-Bring your thangles in a bag with your name, leave the papers on and press the seams open.
