PRESIDENT'S 'LETTER

September 2020

Hello Quilters,

We met this past Saturday the 22nd of August for our Annual Meeting. We had so much fun in Hawaii (aka Panama City) for our luncheon. The decorations were beautiful and again our Event Committee went all out.

I want to personally thank the Events Committee and the Hospitality Team for all the hard work they put into it. We had special preparations in place for COVID-19. Our seating arrangements were different than they have been in the past, but everyone had a great time. We are looking so forward to seeing as many as possible at our next meeting.

Please note that if you have any questions or problems please feel free to reach out to me by phone, email, text or stop by Jim's Vac & Sew and see me. The membership book has gone to printing. I am especially excited to get back to a normal routine and having our meetings.

We have a lot of great classes planned but these will not start up till after the first of the year. Please be safe and enjoy life as much as you can. See you next month,

Have a great month and see you soon,

Karen Radcliff
President

Hospitality

It was so great seeing some of you at our meeting on August the 22 and here's hoping that in September we will be able to gather again.

Staying with the safety protocols, we will again only sit with four at a table, wearing masks.

Refreshments will be coffee and orange juice and donuts/pastries will be served.

Please stay safe and keep those fingers stitching.

Community Service

Thank you to all of you who have continued to work on projects at home and turned them in to me. We will continue to have kits available for our projects until we can get together again.

We are planning Work day Wednesday this month and we will be working on receiving blankets.

Take care be safe,
Janet Bell

QUILT SHOW UPDATE

Greetings to Guild members.

As we all remain housebound and away from group events, I hope you, like me, are spending time amusing yourself with quilting fun. I have been sorting through my stash of quilt magazines and finding patterns which I would like to keep and throwing away other magazines. (this has made my husband extremely happy – he thinks I have too much stuff!) If he only knew.

But I found many patterns which include nine patches in the design. So I hope that you have been inspired to make a quilt which has nine patches. I would love to see that category full of quilts.

It was enjoyable to have our Guild meeting, even if it meant wearing masks and sitting far apart. If you attended the meeting, you had the chance to see our current Opportunity Quilt. It is really nice and certainly a winner. Who wouldn't enjoy winning that quilt. (picture here in newsletter) We will be presenting you with tickets to sell as well as a picture of the quilt. I know that we are not being very sociable right now, but try to sell tickets. It's your part of membership in the Guild. Thanks again to Bev Spark, Patricia McLendon, Rae Charles and Lorie Day. And Jo- Ellen Rogers who quilted the quilt.

Those four ladies are also heading up the Boutique. They are looking for "cute" items to sell. I hope you all will find something you can donate to the Boutique and to the Silent Auction as well. Our projects sell because you all are talented people and people look for nice things that someone else has made!

Lastly, my thoughts right now are on the ladies who are working on ribbons. They aren't difficult to make but take time. Give thanks to Becki Stewart who is embroidering the centers, Karen Radcliff who is embroidering tails and Marsha Michel who is rounding up friends to finish by making ruffles and tails and assembling them. We all enjoy winning the ribbons, so give thanks to those who are making them.

So lastly, take care, stay safe and keep quilting!
