PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Hello Fellow Quilters,

First, I want to say thank you to Betty Marler and her Events Committee for a wonderful Christmas Party. It was great to see so many of you at the party. I feel like it was our best one yet, and I loved the Dirty Santa game, even though Joyce ended up with the Snowman.

On another note, please keep the Midwest in your prayers after the devastating tornadoes. Thank you for all the hard work you have done this past year. Please have a safe and Happy Holidays through the New Year.

Karen Radcliff
SABQG President

PS: Now we focus on the Quilt Show

THANK YOU

Sarah Hutton would like to thank everyone for all of your support and kind wishes.

A WORD ABOUT EWORDS

As we begin a new year, I would like to clarify exactly what Ewords is and how it can serve you better.

Ewords is not "Patchwords". "Patchwords" is the name of our guild newsletter which you are reading right now. "Patchwords" is put together by Carolyn Pic and distributed through Ewords by me, Kathye DeLuca.

I send out emails in 7 groups, divided alphabetically. In addition to the Newsletter, I send out reminders for all the guild events General Meetings, Sit-n-Stitch, Work Day Wednesdays, etc. Since the information for these events comes from "Patchwords", it would be a good idea to save them on your device to refer to later.

If you have questions, please contact the chairperson of the event as listed in your guild directory. Since the purpose of Ewords is to send out information, please do not reply. I do not check the inbox regularly, only when I am sending something out.

Ewords can be used by any member who needs to send a message to the entire guild. For example: You have material or a machine to sell. Contact me by text or email and let me know what your message is. I would ask that all your contact information be included. I'm not prepared to act as a sales agent.

I hope that clears things up.

Again, I ask you please do not reply to Ewords messages.

Thank you,
Kathye DeLuca

Night Meeting

I can't believe this year has gone by so fast. I wish you all Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, along with safe travels to all who are headed out of town for the holidays.

I have enjoyed the night guild meetings so much and look forward to the things we will do together in 2022. We will have a program in January given by Carolyn Pic.

I will have the sign up sheets for the Quilt Show for anyone who has not signed up to work.

See you in 2022!

Carolyn Finlayson 2nd VP.

HOSPITALITY

Welcome 2022! With a positive outlook, this year will bring a newness of peace and wellbeing 🙏!! I'm sure everyone is busy binding those quilts for the quilt show next month.

Can't wait to see the finished creations! I will be passing around a "help wanted" poster for the refreshments for the two days of the show.

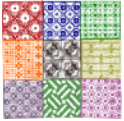

We need 4 soups, 4 salads, 4 miscellaneous, and 4 desserts each day. Some one can sign up for sodas, water or tea as well. As always, thank you for your generosity.

A reminder also, MONDAY GROUP has refreshments for the January meeting. There have been no sign ups for Sit n Stitch for the new year, so far, so, if you are interested, please let me know!

Happy New Year, and God bless us, everyone!!!!

😊 Alana

Quilt Show

ARE YOU READY? ARE YOU EXCITED?

We certainly are anxious for Quilt Show 2022 to get here. We're ready to put covid behind us. Year 2020 was difficult in so many ways...and it continued into 2021. Quarantine and uncertainty over illness made our lives not easy. We're ready to move forward. We hope that you were able to make use of empty time by quilting.

Quilting is a good way to keep our mind occupied in a positive way. So maybe you have a quilt or two to show for your covid time. We look forward to seeing your projects!

There are ways you help put on the show. Remember to sign up to work at the show. Carolyn Finlayson has a signup sheet. We need people to work at the admission table, sell opportunity quilt tickets, work the Boutique and Silent Auction, and be an angel in the quilt displays. It takes many people every day to keep the show running smoothly.

We manage a hospitality room for the worker bees. Alana is the hostess in charge. She needs members to bring soups, sandwiches, snacks and desserts for each day that the show is running. Please let her know what you can bring. (We also share our goodies with the vendors = they say we are the only show that feeds them.) Quilters are good cooks. Please share your favorite recipe with us.

Check with Betty Marler (Boutique) and Marsha Michel & Aking Osborne (Silent Auction) about help setting up their booths. If you have a group which is preparing a basket for raffle please let Betty know. We need to make space for them. They should fit on a table top. No larger baskets please.

Sarah Hutton chairs the set up committee. She needs help. Let her know if you can help her. You need to be able to climb a ladder. Likewise we need helpers with take down. Let Carol Shulz if you can assist with that.

You can always show up for the show and come to me and say, "I'm here to work, put me where you need me!

Beverly Pierzchala

THANKS TO ALL OF YOU - YOU MAKE THE SHOW HAPPEN!

Turn in your quilts on Tuesday, February 8th from 9:00-12:00.

Make sure you have a hanging sleeve and covered label.

"Friends are threads of gold in the quilt of life".

Old Folks are worth a fortune

Old Folks are worth a fortune with silver in their hair, gold in their teeth and stones in their kidneys, lead in their feet and gas in their stomachs.

I have become a lot more social with the passing of the years, some might call me a frivolous old gal. I'm seeing 5 gentlemen every day.

As soon as I wake, Will Power helps me get out of bed. Then I go to see John.

Then Charley Horse comes along and when he's here, he takes a lot of my time and attention.

When he leaves Arthur Ritis shows up and stays the rest of the day. (He doesn't like to stay in one place very long, so he takes me from joint to joint.)

After such a busy day, I am ready to go to bed.... with Ben Gay. What a life!

P.S. The Preacher came to call the other day. He said that at my age I should be thinking about the hereafter. I told him I do....all the time. No matter where I am....in the parlor, upstairs, in the kitchen, or down in the basement.... I ask my self, "now what am I here after?"
