

ST. Andrew Bay Quilters Guild
January 15, 2025

Call To Order: The Meeting was called to order by President Alana Yuratich

Welcome: Members were welcomed and asked to stand for the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of The United States of America.

President Alana Yuratich reminded members that with the new year comes new beginning and challenges. We have our Annual Quilt Show, with sign up sheets for volunteers for every area of the event. She asked members to check the sign up board to confirm their commitment. Make notations of the dates and deadlines for the show. She asked all members to Park in the Grassy area at the back of the Fairgrounds to leave the other parking places open to our visitors and those who might have a hard time walking.

Publicity Sandy reported that we have billboards, posters, yard signs, advertising in the Register and other guilds have been contacted regarding our upcoming show.

Hospitality Georgia thanked the guild members who furnished refreshments.

Bee Keeper Rebecca/Volunteers The old Glory Bee is dissolved for the time being. She also reminded members to sign up to work at the quilt Show. Please see the sign up board to see where workers are needed.

Membership Cindy Attendance at meeting 72, 2 guests.

Treasurer Alana reported for Dianne Dagle, who is out of town. The books are balanced, bills are paid. She reminded everyone to please get your ticket money and opportunity quilt money turned in .

History Block Jo gave the history of the Army Star Block and provided copies of the pattern.

Community Service Aly reported Walker Bags and adult bibs were donated to Mathison Assisted Living. Dog Beds and stairs were donated to Heartland Rescue. The next workday Wednesday will be next week Jan 22, 2024, 9 to 11 at Bell Hall. We will be sorting Barb Palko's boxes of fabric, sewing bibs and walker bags, and labeling quilts. We also have several quilt tops that need backs. Boutique items will be in room 202. Loretta and Karen Jones will need help pricing if you want to join them. She passed out walker bag kits to members to make and bring back to the next meeting.

Library / Boutique Loretta reported the library will be open after the meeting for members to check out books. Loretta also asked for items for the Boutique to sell at the quilt show. She suggested place mats, table runner, bowl cozies, etc.

First Vice President Diane Wishart, gave a short remembrance for Barb Palco, Andrea Harper and Sharon Pippin. Members who have recently passed away.

Show and Tell members shared their quilts and projects.
